Your tutor: Rachel Wright

Rachel Wright is an embroiderer and blogger based in the North-west of England. A degree in French and Linguistics, and an MSc in Textile Design Technology and Design Management led her into other waters, but eventually true North pulled, and she enjoys writing about the hows and whys of stitch and thread choice, and the highs and lows of a semi-unplanned style of pictorial embroidery. There are a couple of wonderful examples of Rachel's innovative creations above.

Now Rachel is enjoying devising a series of embroidered 'Postcards from Posara' that will provide opportunities to experiment with stitch and thread textures. They are structured around some of the excursions on a painting course she joined at the watermill, and they are providing a wonderful opportunity to revisit her memories of those adventures.

Everything is included in the cost of your holiday at the watermill: tuition, accommodation (including all linen and towels), pre-dinner aperitifs, all meals and wines (including outings to charming local restaurants) and all local transportation (including transfers to Pisa airport and an excursion by train to Lucca or the Cinque Terre). You get to Pisa, Italy, we do the rest! And you will be Cool and Green at the Watermill: all our rooms are air-conditioned powered by photovoltaic cells which make us self-sufficient in electricity.
